
YOLO COUNTY DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE

INNOVATIVE PROGRAMS

INNOVATIVE PROGRAMS

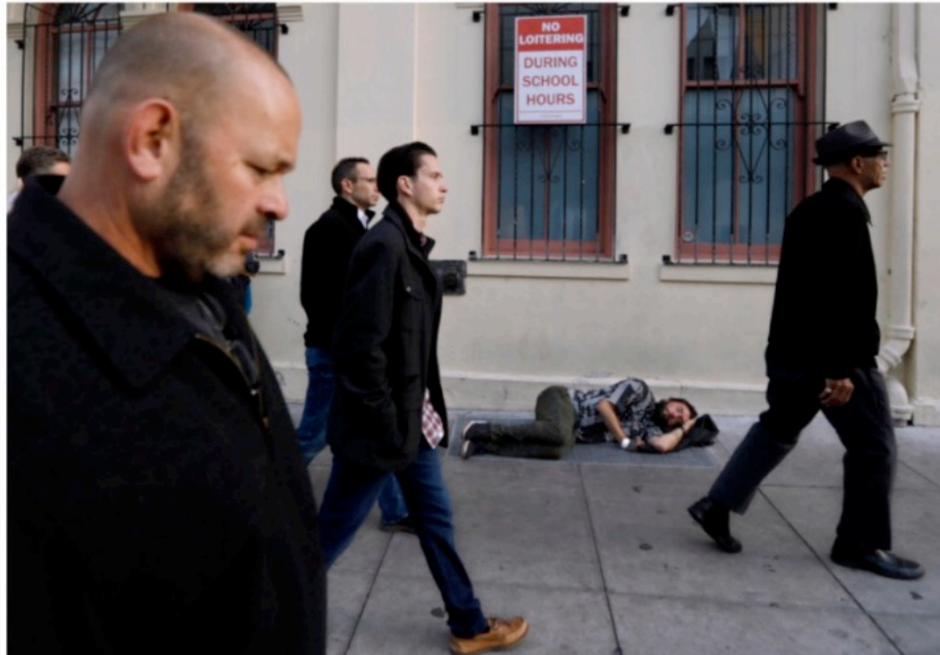

- Multi-Cultural Community Council
- An Officer and a Mensch
- Measures for Justice – Commons Portal
- For the People – Prosecutor Initiated Resentencing
- Stanford – Race Blind Charging
- Harm Reduction
- Collaborative Courts – Decriminalizing
- Collateral Consequences – Non-Citizens

MULTI-CULTURAL COMMUNITY COUNCIL

Los Angeles Times

Column: What if I were homeless?
An immersion course in empathy in San Francisco's Tenderloin

Del Seymour, right, known as the mayor of the Tenderloin, leads Garrett Hamilton, left, Christopher Salazar and Adam Flores on a tour of the San Francisco neighborhood. (Genaro Molina/Los Angeles Times)

By NITA LELYVELD | CITY BEAT COLUMNIST

THE GLIDE CHURCH

AN OFFICER AND A MENSCH

Policy Goal

Monthly Data

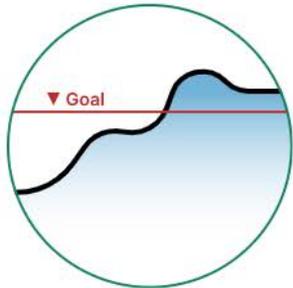

County Information

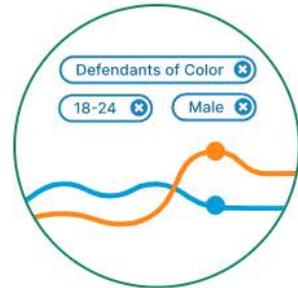

TRUST & TRANSPARENCY

Ongoing access to Yolo County's criminal justice data.

Commons is created in partnership with Measures for Justice, the Yolo County Multi-Cultural Community Council & the Yolo County District Attorney's Office. It is a joint space for making criminal justice data transparent and shared goals public.

TRACK POLICY GOAL

EXPLORE DATA

SHARE FINDINGS

CO-CREATION

Working with Community Advocates and Yolo County Officials

When the public, police, prosecutors, and courts share and trust the same data, those data become the common ground for reform.

COMMONS
DATA
TRANSPARENCY
PORTAL WITH MEASURES FOR JUSTICE

'Threading the needle': Why California's most innovative prosecutor might be in Yolo County

Yolo County DA wants to address racial bias. Why the Sacramento region should, too

Real Data. Real Talk. Real Change.

commons

Community Driven. Data Informed.

Town Hall Meetings

Yolo County District Attorney data portal leads to policy change

PROSECUTOR INITIATED SENTENCING

dalaw.yolocounty.o... Yolo Commons dalaw.yolocounty.o... dalaw.yolocounty.o... ePro - Electronic Pl...

Los Angeles Times

CALIFORNIA

  12 years after being locked up as a teen, he finds mercy from the D.A. who put him there

Renwick "Little Ren" Drake Jr., shown in West Sacramento last month, was sentenced to 24 years in prison for his role in a 2009 robbery. He was 15 at the time of the crime. (Gary Corrado / Los Angeles Times)

BY ANITA CHABRIA | COLUMNIST
NOV. 31, 2021 5 AM PT

SUBSCRIBERS ARE READING >

CALIFORNIA
California will lift mask mandate for vaccinated residents in indoor public places next week. >

CALIFORNIA FOR SUBSCRIBERS
Online pastors, form letters: The cottage industry helping workers avoid vaccine mandates

MOVIES
Oscar nominations 2022: Complete predictions in all 23 categories

HIGH SCHOOL SPORTS
Harvard-Westlake is No. 1 in preseason baseball top 25 rankings for the Southland

ENTERTAINMENT & ARTS
14 parties in L.A. for Super Bowl Week, from free to fancy

ADVERTISEMENT

PROSECUTOR INITIATED SENTENCING

1170 D
KING HALL
CLASS

■ Stanford Partnership - Race Blind Charging

Original narrative

Brianna Johnson reported that a black male with brown hair wearing a black jacket assaulted her in Midtown, next to Johnson's home. She reported the incident to Officer Lee.

Automatically redacted narrative

[Victim 1] reported that a [race] male with [hair color] wearing a black jacket assaulted her in [neighborhood], next to [Victim 1]'s home. She reported the incident to [Officer 1].

RESTORATIVE JUSTICE PARTNERSHIP

MENTAL HEALTH COURT, ADDICTION INTERVENTION COURT & MENTAL HEALTH DIVERSION PROGRAM

COLLATERAL CONSEQUENCES FOR NON-CITIZENS (MANUEL 1473 PC)